

Tracy Cheung 2C (29)

A Ghost Story

Last Mid-Autumn festival, John and Peter went to a park and played lanterns together. They were very happy.

Suddenly, they felt someone following them. They saw a creature with long hair walking towards them. 'Help! I saw a ghost.' Peter cried loudly. 'Me too!' John replied. They were very frightened. They ran and ran very fast.

They ran far away. They got lost. They were very tired. They saw a house in front of them. They knocked on the door, but no one answered. Then, they walked into the house. 'I don't want to see any ghost!' Peter said with fear. 'I can't walk,' John said.

Suddenly, they heard someone walking towards the house. They were very very frightened and didn't know what to do. 'If the ghost comes in the house, we will get a stick to fight it,' John suggested.

Someone opened the door, but he was not a ghost. He was a man. He lived in that house. John and Peter were not frightened any more. They told what they saw to the man. 'Boys, you can stay here tonight!' the man said. They stayed and slept there that night.

What was the creature that John and Peter saw?

Pan Wing Sze Anny 2C (33)

A Ghost Story

It was the evening of the Mid-Autumn festival. In the moonlight night, John and Peter played in the garden. They took a lantern and Peter lit the candle in it. Suddenly they saw a shadow in the trees. It was a ghost. Its face was scary. The boys were very frightened and ran away quickly. They ran into the graveyard and got lost. It was very dark. They were so frightened that they cried.

They found a house and went in. John was very tired and he said, "I can't walk!"

"I don't want to see ghost!" Peter said. The ghost followed them into the house. Suddenly the light was turned on and they heard someone say loudly "Happy Halloween". They were very surprised and happy. The 'ghost' was Peter's father! It was funny!